

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce to the people of Broken Bow and vicinity that I have purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by J. W. Scott, and in invoicing, I find it is much larger than I anticipated, in fact I have more goods on hand than room to handle them properly, and in order to reduce the stock I am making very attractive prices in groceries, flour and feed. I have also an immense amount of Queenware, Glassware, Lamps, Lanterns, Agate, Tinware, Wash tubs, Boilers and Cooking Utensile of all kinds which I am pricing to sell. Have a complete line of Hardware and Builder's Supplies. I can save you money. Come in and investigate.

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Gleaned for Your Perusal by Our Rustling Reporters

Garland Lewis, county superintendent elect, came down from Anselmo yesterday.

Rev. W. L. Gaston of Anselmo, was a city visitor last Saturday. The Republican acknowledges a social call.

Judge Reese returned Tuesday night from Beatrice where he attended the funeral of Captain Brooks, late of Dunning.

Misses Golda and Gladys Brown, daughters of Sam Brown, who have been in Colorado the past year returned to Broken Bow recently.

George Stevenson, the deputy organizer of the Royal Highlanders, has been at Alliance the past ten days looking after the work in that locality.

Public Sale of Duroc Males from the herd of Reese & Martin at the livery and sale barn of Nelson & Miller, Broken Bow, Saturday, Dec. 14, at 1 p. m.

J. T. Wood has sold his residence property, consisting of ten acres joining the city or the east, to W. F. Higginbottom, of Myrtle township. We understand the consideration was $3500.

Clyde Wilson who is to be clerk in the county treasurer's office under treasurer elect Mackey is helping in the treasurer's office so as to get familiar with the duties of the office. The recognition of Gus Taylor makes a vacancy for him.

Mrs. E. D. Marquis, who has been ill with diabetes and under the care of Dr. Sheridan for the past month, has recovered and left Thursday night, in company with her husband, for Wyoming where they will spend the winter with their daughter.

Boston Ideal Comic Opera Company.

Too much cannot be said in praise of this excellent company and the fact of Manager Groat having secured them speaks well for his desire to give his patrons the very best the road affords, and we hope the theatre goers of Broken Bow will show their appreciation of his efforts by giving him their hearty support. The company has already had fourteen very successful seasons, and now comes with a larger and stronger than heretofore. This is what we learn from authentic sources that the play and players are really meritorious and far superior to the average organizations of this kind. At the opera house 3 nights commencing Monday December 13th.

Mrs. C. U. Franklin, north of town, is ill with la grippe.

Rev. A. T. Norwood, pastor of the Baptist church, has been confined to his room since Tuesday by sickness.

Remember the public sale of Duroc males from Reese & Martin herd, Saturday Dec. 18, at 1 p. m. at Nelson & Miller's barn, in Broken Bow.

J. W. Scott and family, Ed Scott and wife, Roy Scott and family, Merl Pigman and W. P. Rogers left Tuesday morning for Texas where they will spend the winter and probably locate for good.

Press Richardson, who has been sick for several weeks, is reported in a serious condition and but little hopes are entertained of his recovery. His brother C. U. Richardson, of Arnold, came over the first of the week to be with him.

Mrs. Sena Hartzel Wallace, a temperance lecturer from Kansas City, spoke at the Evangelical church last Monday night. She was to speak at the Baptist church Tuesday night but on account of the rain the lecture was cancelled. At the request of Evangeline Myers, the teacher of this section she gave a very helpful and interesting talk to the pupils on Wednesday morning. She came here under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of the place.

Leon Lambert and Charley Linney started to school this week. Mrs. Bert Thurman, who has for over two months been suffering from nervous prostration was taken to Callaway Wednesday for osteopathic treatment, having been given up by physicians. Bird Mongey, who has been in the "Great Wild and Woolly West" for about a year and a half returned home Tuesday night.

Little Iras Ward, who for some has been sick with typhoid fever, was taken to Kearney for treatment last week. Mrs. Desie VanCleave, of Kearney, has been visiting with her mother-in-law Mrs. P. T. VanCleave and family the past week.

On last Tuesday afternoon the Mothers' Meeting was held at Mrs. Ryan's. In spite of the inclement weather, there were twelve present. Mrs. Wallace spoke to the ladies.

Hoosier Notes. E. B. Johnson and family and Mr. McCoy and family visited with Porter Whitney the first of the week.

Garland Lewis was a visitor at C. M. Street's and also at the Literary Thursday evening.

Mr. Whitney braved the elements and went to town Monday. An old timer in this valley was heard to remark after the first snow was gone that the winter had already seemed as long as the longest in years. Wonder what he thinks about it now?

The question for debate for Thursday evening Dec. 21st is Resolved, that the amount required for improvement on Kinkaid homesteads should be reduced from $1.25 to .75 per acre.

Guilford. Little is known in this vicinity this week.

The snow has delayed corn husking. People are anxious to get stock into their fields.

Steve Taylor was kicked by a horse Sunday and is now nursing his lame limb by the fire.

C. Talbot shipped a car load of cattle to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wright and Retta Young spent Tuesday at Anselmy's.

Wednesday Dec. 21st was the last day of Miss Rains' school. A goodly crowd of the patrons were present to listen to our well rendered program and to express their regrets for the closing of school and give their thanks for service rendered by the teacher. The children did well in all their parts and showed their respect and love by presenting a beautiful 16x20 framed picture of Pharo's horses to the teacher. Several of the pupils presented individual gifts for remembrance. When the children were singing that beautiful Christmas song "Kris Kringle," Old Santa came in and gave each child a well filled sack of candy, nuts and oranges.

The school is out, a little draught we've drunk at Wisdom's spring; my deeper draughts by us be quaffed, and may we to her cling.

Mr. Rains and Nannie spent the last day with us.

Ortello News. Another good snow in this vicinity. Let it snow. J. S. Dyke and wife visited at J. M. Inman's Sunday afternoon.

E. H. Purcell finished husking corn last Thursday. E. H. Purcell and son Fred went to Broken Bow Saturday for a short visit.

Zumbrota Zephyrs. Low Wanek, who has been in this vicinity husking some corn, has returned to the Bow.

M. D. Stone has rented a part of Ben Holcomb's farm for next season. The Peden farm has changed hands again. Mr. Wright of Iowa is the purchaser. He doesn't yet know whether he will reside on the ranch or rent it.

This snow keeps the farmers out of the field. Mr. Sands has a number of men engaged so when the weather permits he can take advantage of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cramer, of Ormsby, Sunlaved with F. A. Routh's. Chas. Sands spent Saturday night with Chas. Koozer.

J. T. Cole has disposed of a fine bunch of hogs. News is scarce. The weather doesn't permit any parties, etc., and am afraid before the winter is over times will be dull.
